

Senator Jeff Smith

Senator Jeff Smith currently represents the 31st Senate District, which includes 9 counties in rural, western Wisconsin. Prior to being elected, Sen. Smith worked tirelessly in his community on public education opportunities, health care access and affordability, redistricting reform, water protections and more.

Senator Smith previously served in the State Assembly during the 2007 and 2009 legislative sessions and was a leader on reforming payday lending regulations, puppy mill regulations and voter rights protections. Before serving in the State Assembly, Senator Smith was a small business owner and served on the Brunswick Town Board as Chair for 6 years. He was active with the Governor's Task Force for Educational Excellence, the Wisconsin Parent Teacher Association Board, the Department of Public Instruction's Parent Leadership Corps and the Wisconsin Alliance for Excellent Schools.

Senator Smith currently serves as the Ranking Member of the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Revenue & Financial Institutions. He also serves as member of the Ethics and & Rural Issues Committee; Government Operations, Technology & Consumer Protections Committee; and the Sporting Heritage, Mining and Forestry Committee. Today, Senator Jeff Smith and his wife Sue live on their farm in the Town of Brunswick caring for horses, chickens, dogs, cats, a llama and their land.
