

Larry Graves

Department of Veteran Affairs

Larry Graves serves as an Education Consultant with the Department of Veteran Affairs State Approving Agency. Through program review and supervision, Larry assists the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs in preventing fraud, waste, and abuse in the administration of GI Bill® funds; ensuring Wisconsin's veterans receive quality education and training.

Prior to joining the department in 2017, Larry spent 16 years working in public higher education, last serving as Registrar and Director of Admissions for the former University of Wisconsin Colleges. He served on active duty in the United States Air Force from 1991 through 1995.

Larry has a master's degree in Training and Organizational Development and bachelor's degree in Technology Education from the University of Wisconsin-Stout, and an associate's degree in Mechanical Design from Fox Valley Technical College.

A native of Luck, Wisconsin, Larry resides in Fitchburg with his wife Heather.
