

Paul Kundert

President/CEO of UW Credit Union

Since 2003, Paul Kundert has been President/CEO of UW Credit Union, a federally insured financial cooperative serving Wisconsin communities. During his 17-year tenure, the credit union's membership has tripled to more than 278,000 members and assets have surpassed $3.3 billion, placing UW Credit Union among the nation's leading credit unions. UW Credit Union enjoys a pro-consumer reputation and has been helping fund educational goals in Wisconsin for generations. Under the previous Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP), UW Credit Union was among the nation's top 50 lenders. Since 2006, UW Credit Union has been one of the top private student lenders in the nation. Paul earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Winona State University and an MBA from the University of St. Thomas as well as a CPA professional designation.