

Shannon Conlin

Assistant Attorney General, Wisconsin Department of Justice

Shannon Conlin is an Assistant Attorney General at the Wisconsin Department of Justice in the Public Protection Unit. She joined the Department of Justice in July 2015. Shannon began her career at the Department of Justice in the Civil Litigation Unit, where she served until May 2019. In May 2019, Shannon transferred to the Public Protection Unit, where she enforces the laws that protect Wisconsin's consumers. Shannon is a Wisconsin native and grew up in Mt. Horeb. She received her Bachelor of Science from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, summa cum laude, where she was also a member of the track and field team. She received her juris doctorate from the University of Wisconsin Law School, cum laude. Prior to joining the Department of Justice Shannon worked in the private sector, focusing on civil litigation.